

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

THE TROLLEY CAR FRACTURED HIS SKULL.
ANOTHER MAN KILLED BY THE BROOKLYN JUGGERNAUT.

Another man was killed by a trolley car yesterday. He was Louis F. Hiltz, of No. 20 Spencer-st. Mr. Hiltz had a drug store at Herkimer-st. and Hopkins-st. He closed it shortly after midnight and started for home. At Fulton-st. and Ralph-ave. he undertook to board a trolley car on its way downtown. As the car slowed up, he caught the handrail of the front platform and attempted to get on the step. But his foot slipped and he fell, losing his hold, and was dragged under the car. The iron passed in front of the wheels struck him and pinned him over and over on the granite pavement, crushing his life by fracturing his skull and bruising his body. Jacob Hirschberg, the motorman, stopped the car as soon as possible and the crushed and bleeding body was taken from under it. Hiltz was unconscious and was carried into a liquor shop near by, where an ambulance surgeon attended him. He died at half past one. The motorman says that Hiltz did not signal the car to stop. He was arrested and placed under $1,000 bonds yesterday in the Gateways police court. Hiltz was twenty-six years old, and had a wife and one child. His wife was so ill that it was deemed best not to inform her of her husband's death. His body will be sent to the house of his parents, at Norwalk, Ohio, for burial.

A POSSIBLE OFFICE FOR J. W. HARMON.

The report gained credence yesterday that the choice of Mayor-elect Schieren for Police Commissioner is Granville W. Harmon, of the Twenty-fifth Ward. Mr. Harmon is an active Republican and a son of John W. Harmon. Both of them have held public office.

The new Mayor will be called upon to officiate on the first day of his term of office at the civil wedding of Miss Tony Schieren, a daughter of H. B. Schieren, who is a cousin of Mrs. Schieren, to Julius Liebmman, a son of Charles Liebmman. The fathers of both the parties to the marriage are brewers. Miss Schieren was educated at the Packer Institute and Mr. Liebmman at the Polytechnic. Mayor Boody performed the civil marriage ceremony for another daughter of Mr. Schieren last summer.

ALFRED T. WHITE RESIGNS HIS OFFICE.

Alfred T. White, whom Mayor-elect Schieren has selected for City Works Commissioner, has resigned the presidency of the Brooklyn Bureau of Charities, to whose work he has given much time and attention for a number of years. It is proposed by the bureau to cooperate with the Poor Association in devising plans for the relief of the increasing distress among the poor people of the city, and to interest charitable citizens in the work. Already the applications for aid are far in excess of those made in previous years.

THE ROADS WILL NOT BE CONSOLIDATED.

The recent efforts to consolidate the Broadway Railroad Company, of Brooklyn, with the Brooklyn Traction Company, preparatory to the absorption of both systems by the Long Island Traction Company, which controls the Brooklyn City Railroad Company, have come to naught. The Long Island Traction Company has, however, taken steps to get control of the Broadway system, and arrangements have been made for its consolidation with the Brooklyn City system. A meeting was held on Monday at the Brooklyn City Company's office, and the directors agreed to Samuel Spengler, who represented the interests of Drexel, Morgan & Co., in the Broadway company, to take control of it. Bonds will be issued to pay for the city and to equip it with the trolley. The amount will be about $5,000,000. The Brooklyn City Company's new power-house in the city will furnish the power to operate the Broadway lines.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

There was considerable surprise shown yesterday when the fact was made known that Miss Mary Martin, who was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for swindling a year ago, had been pardoned from Auburn Prison in August. Miss Martin was a reporter who swindled Bernard Bischoff, a Brooklyn grocer, by means of a check to which she forged the name of Mrs. Frank Leslie. She was tried in December of last year and was sent to the Kings County Penitentiary for two years. In June she was transferred to Auburn Prison. On August 18 she was released by pardon. Neither Mrs. Frank Leslie nor Mr. Bischoff knew anything of her pardon.

An effort is being made to get Sheriff Butting to transfer the Sheriff's sales of real estate from the Court House to the Real Estate Exchange in Montague-st.

Mayor Boody and Excise Commissioner Schieren had a conference yesterday, but both refused to tell the result of it. A friend of Commissioner Schieren said that the latter told him he would not resign. The Mayor said that he might have something to say to-day in regard to the difficulty over the license secured by John H. Aschhoff.

Joseph Howard, Jr., will lecture on "Journalism, Past and Present," at the Park Theatre on Sunday evening, under the auspices of the Brooklyn Press Club.

A meeting will be held at Pratt Institute, in Assembly Hall, on Thursday evening, December 14, to organize a society for the promotion of neighborhood and the extension of Pratt Institute work. To this meeting are invited all persons who have been or are connected in any serviceable way with the institute as teachers, students or library members, past and present.

James A. Crandall, dealer in toys at No. 33 Fulton-st., has made an assignment to John D. Pray, giving preference to $2,000. He has been in business over twenty-five years.

A "home department conference" for the promotion of this feature of Sunday-school work will be held in the chapel of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church to-morrow at 8 p. m. The topic to be discussed is "The Plan, the Work, the Results." All interested in the subject are invited to be present.

The annual meeting of the Brooklyn Christian Endeavor Union for the election of officers will be held to-morrow evening at the Second Presbyterian Church, Rensselaer-st., at 8 o'clock.

An organ concert will be given by Clarence Eddy, of Chicago, in the New-York-Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church this evening. Miss Myria French will sing. Mr. Eddy was chosen to open the great organ at the World's Fair.

The funeral of Wallace Eugene Blackford will take place this evening at No. 725 St. Mark's-ave.

his pockets, and has not since been heard from. His relatives fear that he met foul play.

The members of the Cotton Exchange yesterday decided by a large vote to close the Exchange on the Saturday preceding Christmas Day and the Saturday preceding New Year's Day.

Dr. Anton von Poltschek, the retiring Consul-General of the Austria-Hungarian Empire at this port, sailed for home yesterday on the Hamburg-American steamer Normanna. The doctor will go to Naples, and from there to Vienna. Dr. von Poltschek resigns because he wants to go back to his native land and live.

The steamer Persian Monarch, which arrived here yesterday from London, reported that E. B. Jordan, the assistant cook of the vessel, disappeared on December 2, and is supposed to have committed suicide by jumping overboard.

George Sawkins, the Australian astronomer, will deliver a series of six lectures on "Scientific Religion" in Chickering Hall, beginning on Sunday, December 17, at 8 p. m. Mr. Sawkins will discuss the mysticism of ancient and modern theologies. Australian and New-Zealand papers have praised his lectures.

A lecture illustrated with 100 stereoscopic views will be given to-morrow evening at the Phillips Presbyterian Church by Professor P. S. Curtis, on "A Day at the World's Fair."

Antoine Morissine, a Frenchman, thirty years old, who had been employed in the restaurant of A. Bernadat, at No. 58 West Twenty-second-st., but was discharged recently, was found dying on the sidewalk in front of the place early yesterday morning. He had jumped from the roof of the building, and expired as an ambulance was carrying him to the New-York Hospital. In a letter addressed to Bernadat, and written in French, Morissine declared his intention of throwing himself from the roof of the restaurant. He also wrote that his eyes had been injured by service in the French Army in 1890, and he had intended to kill himself sooner. He came to this city less than a year ago.

An entertainment for the benefit of the Woodstock Hospital will be held under the auspices of the Concordia Club on January 4 at Central Opera House Assembly Rooms.

The Executive Committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company yesterday met and recommended the payment of the usual dividend of 14 per cent by the Board of Directors to-day.

E. H. Corey, who is a well-known Cleveland Democrat, is expected to succeed Deputy Collector Charles A. Burr, who has been asked by Collector Kilbreth to step out on Friday. Corey is supported by the Cleveland Democrats of the Manhattan Club, members of the Cleveland Dry Goods Club and the Cleveland Down Town Business Men's Club.

Harry Johnston, a good-looking young man of twenty-one years, who obtained tickets on a fraudulent order and started out to make a big speculation on the Princeton-Yale football game at Manhattan Field on Thanksgiving Day, was yesterday sent to the Elmira Reformatory.

A dinner will be given to-night at the Gerlach Hotel to the visiting members of the conference held to discuss the exhaustion of food fish supplies.
